

What is keeping me from practicing peace...

God is a God of righteousness, peace, and joy. He doesn't want you to live in fear and turmoil. Follow Hezekiah's example, write down what you're fearful of, and lay it before God.

How are you going to choose to practice peace?

